

galerie denise rené

Reinventing us

Dear collectors and friends,

Thanks to the trust you have placed in me over the past 10 years and to your presence, I believe I have succeeded in continuing Denise's work, in bringing to life beautiful exhibitions while respecting the artistic line she had set, and enriching it with new proposals. I also had the opportunity, through these meetings with emerging talents, to show that a revival is underway and that a new generation of artists is taking up and developing, with or without digital tools, the trend of constructed and kinetic art.

The owner of our gallery space on rue Charlot has just sold his premises and the gallery will have to turn a page at the end of June. You can imagine, after having found this space and helped Denise to set up her Gallery, how sorry I am to have to abandon it today.

Despite the profound changes in the landscape caused by the financialization of the art market, I remain convinced that the denise rené gallery, which has worked very hard - and still contributes - to the recognition of the artistic movement with which it is identified, still has its place today.

It is therefore not a question, for the Gallery, of giving up, but of using this moment of mutation to reinvent ourselves. The modalities of this renewal are still to be specified, but we already know the contours of it:

- increase our presence on the Internet and social networks, by developing sales proposals,
- continue Denise's work by organizing temporary physical exhibitions in private spaces (as we did last winter at the Bonisson Art Center) or in partnership with other galleries and institutions;
- designing exhibitions and presentations of works based on a renewed gallery concept, in a new location for which research has begun.

We will be sure to keep you informed of the next steps in the life of the denise rené gallery and will be happy to invite you to the opening of our next exhibitions.

Until then, our contacts, exchanges and discussions will obviously continue with you without interruption by email, phone, Whatsapp, through our website and the Artsy and Artnet websites.

From now on, I am at your disposal to continue to answer all your requests concerning proposals and advice on acquisitions, the follow-up of your collections, the specific conception of exhibitions

Until Saturday, June 17, we will have the great pleasure to welcome you in the last exhibition "hier I demain" presented on rue Charlot.

We thank you for continuing with us our commitment to this demanding abstraction that the denise rené gallery presents and defends since 1945.

Denis Kilian
director of the denise rené gallery